FORSYTH'S GOOD CLOSING DAY.

The Indiana season closed at Forsyth until May 10, when a new track in the same vicinity will be opened. Six races were on yesterday's Forsyth card and despite the raw weather, about 4,000 people were on hand.

A mile allowance race was the cards feature and it furnished one of the prettiest contests of the meeting. The Cushing pair Harry Shannon and Sunburst, were the favorites at 7 to 10 and the public plunged on them. Caywood and Dorsey, the track's best boys, were up and either their instructions or good judgment won the race. Sunburst went out and raced Glenmoyne into the ground and in the final fighting Harry Shannon came on under punishment, and won by a narrow margin from Ben Waddell, who was miserably handled.

Siegfried—real good just now—was a 4 to 5 chance for his race and won in a merry muddy gallop.

Dinah Wat took the two-year-old race, Little Ocean the opening dash, and Proverb—very lucky—got home first in the hurdle race. Repeater was pounds better than he, but his saddle got loose early in the race and it was all his jockey could do to stay on his back.

Abuse's defeat helped the ring considerably. The Foster colt was a public favorite and was heavily played, at what seemed a royal price, 2 to 1.

OUTLAWED JOCKEYS WANTED.

Jockeys are scarce in these days and the Turf Congress officials through its License Committee have issued a general invitation for applications from the outlawed riders for reinstatement and license. They are given until June 1 to make their requests. After that date there will be a joint meeting of the License and Appeal Committees of the Turf Congress at Cincinnati to take action on their cases. Each applicant will have to appear before the Committee in person.
